A Word from Your Pastor

Dear Parishioners:

As this bulletin goes to print, the Pilgrims should be making their way to the Passion Play in Oberammergau and then on to the long journey home. If you are reading this and recalling that your Pastor looked rather bleary-eyed at Mass, then everything for the flights worked well and he made it home in one piece and in good time.

Travels are wonderful. But it is definitely true that “There is no place like home.” I am grateful to call St. Timothy Church my home. You have been so good to me and to all my family and guests. You are known for hospitality. May we continue to grow in God’s grace in our understanding and living of the Gospel.

As the Summer begins, please do stay close to God and the practice of your Faith. When you travel out of town, find a Catholic Church and bring home a bulletin to let us know that you were there! Don’t forget to drop off or mail in your stewardship envelopes while you are away – sadly, our bills continue month by month. If you have some down time in town, the newly rediscovered joy of “at home vacation,” then consider making an extra visit or two to Church. Attend daily Mass at 9:00 a.m. Monday through Friday. Spend some quiet time in the Presence of the Lord in the Eucharist on Wednesday during the day. Watch the bulletin for other opportunities for learning more about the Catholic Faith.

The Year of Prayer:

A Vacation Prayer

Heavenly Father,

You have mercifully allowed human beings to have periods of rest and recuperation on our long journey through life. This is my extended period of rest this year – my vacation from the usual cares of everyday life and my time to be renewed – physically, mentally, and spiritually.

Grant that this vacation will bring me a new awareness of the good things in life, increased knowledge of Your wondrously versatile creativity, delightful travel through fascinating places, and genuine leisure facilitating revitalization. Let me be ever mindful of You and my true goals in life. And bring me back to carry out my daily tasks with cheerfulness and goodwill, and to the best of my strength and ability. Amen

When you’re away from home and need to find a Church for Sunday Mass, check out MASSTIMES.ORG for locations and times!

Families on Mission

Have you ever wondered how you and your family fit into God’s plan of salvation? Have you wondered how you can better exercise your God-given privilege and duty as Christian parents to be the primary educator of your children, especially in leading them to a deeper love and knowledge of our Lord? Have you experienced frustration with trying to raise your children in the faith in the midst of the challenges of today’s society and culture?

Come and join with other parents (and soon-to-be parents) as we learn about the Christian family in God’s plan of salvation. There will be four one-time sessions of “Families on Mission” which will include: 1) a short teaching on the Christian family; 2) practical suggestions and practices for Christian families; 3) resources for further study will be provided and 4) an opportunity to network with other parents and families.

This event is designed for all parents now raising children as well as future parents who are preparing for family life. Children are more than welcome to be present. “Families on Mission” will meet at 11:10 a.m. in the Multipurpose Room for approximately 30 minutes to allow participants to attend the noon Mass. The four dates this event will take place are June 27th, July 11, 18, and 25. Any and all questions may be directed to Seminarian Adam Pasternack, who is running the event.
